DAVE HOLLAND QUINTET: VORTEX

This concert gem stars the Dave Holland Quintet at the peak of their musical maturity: merging passion and logic, spontaneity and group interplay with sparkling clarity. Each musician works as a cog in the delightful engine of swing, relating his phrasing to the supple beat laid down by Holland and Smith. Bassist Dave Holland's legacy is still being written, but his already distinguished career has earned him a prominent place in Jazz history. His inventive, thoughtful, and original sound has not only earned him numerous accolades and resounding applause around the world, but left an indelible mark in the evolution of music. A music lover's greatest reward, this full-length concert DVD will rivet your attention to every phrase that's played, and transport you to a higher musical world.

KAREN AKERS: On Stage At Wolf Trap

"The quintessential cabaret art singer..." -The New York Times

As stunning visually as she is vocally, Karen Akers is universally considered this generation's Cabaret Goddess. Just as highly regarded in the Theatre (nominated for a Tony in Nine) and in Film (The Purple Rose of Cairo, Heartburn), she's never been more captivating than in this live, full-length concert DVD. She personalizes her memorable repertoire (from masters like Sondheim, Brel, Peter Allen, Andrew Lloyd Webber, and others), into remarkable mini-dramas of love and life...universal enough for all of us to relate to, yet individual enough to be hers alone. Just one dose of the Akers experience and you'll never hear Cabaret the same way again.

"Her stage presence and voice are addictive..."
