Christian Howes

& The Horacio Icasto Quartet
■ Live in Madrid

ABOUT THIS DVD

CHRISTIAN HOWES
& THE HORATIO ICASTO QUARTET:
Live in Madrid

Lauded as Downbeat Magazine's #2 rising star, up-and-comer Christian Howes has wowed fellow performers and audiences alike with his explosive violin stylings, uncanny improvisations and a remarkable stage presence that has caused him to be called the "Jazz Paganini."

Christian Howes is just beginning to cast his signature sound and indelible echo onto the world of Jazz. In a corporate musical culture where distinct sounds are cast aside as unmarketable, Howes has shattered the mold, demonstrating the compositional proficiency and improvisational mastery that has made him one of the most sought after young players in Jazz today. Whether working alongside Jazz icons such as Randy Brecker, Jack DeJohnette, Billy Hart, and Dr. John or playing every important Jazz stage from Newport to Birdland, Howes is both a breath of fresh air in the music world and the purveyor of a new sound that is breaking violin stereotypes and captivating music fans and critics yearning for a unique musical vision.

Billy Harper in Concert

LIVE FROM POLAND

ABOUT THIS DVD

BILLY HARPER in Concert: Live From Poland
Featuring
The Szczecin Technical University Choir

Considered one of the premier saxophonists of the post-Coltrane era, Billy Harper's unique, soulful approach to Jazz is on full display in this full-length concert, live from Szczecin, Poland. Performing at the Metropolitan Basilica Cathedral of St. Jacob, known for its acoustic splendor and gothic brilliance, Harper showcases everything from Jazz, with his symphonic flair, to the mystical reach of Gospel Music.

Billy Harper possesses an expansive, genre deconstructing style that fluctuates effortlessly around everything Jazz, from the Kansas City sound to Hard Bop, Fusion to Free, and further embraces influences from Blues, Gospel and Rock music. While constantly evolving from the influential sound of previous Jazz generations, Harper has been careful to carve out his own sound rather than retrace that of music's past, and in the process has consciously and continuously pushed the bounds and momentum of music forward.

Arkadia DVD is proud to present BILLY HARPER in Concert: Live from Poland with his core ensemble (Francesca Tanksley, Clarence Seay, Newman Taylor Baker & Piotr Wojtasiak, who plays with Harper when he performs in Poland), and featuring the 60-piece Szczecin Technical University Choir. A truly special evening.
