OPERA SERIES

RIGOLETTO GIUSEPPE VERDI (1813-1901)
A Feature Film Sung by Tito Gobbi, Mario Del Monaco, Pina Araldi

VIEW DVD #2403 – List Price $19.98

Rarely has an opera's drama been so fully realized as in this brilliant Ferraniacolor feature film version of Verdi's story about a hunchback jester and his daughter. This romantic and melodramatic version of Verdi's masterpiece perfectly captures the period and style, and highlights the unforgettable vocal performances of Gobbi and Del Monaco in some of the most famous arias. The arias are sung in Italian with the dialogue dubbed into English. The Rome Opera Orchestra is conducted by Olivier de Fabritiis.

"Gobbi's Rigoletto...is for me the epitome of all that the opera is"

"(Del Monaco)...his ringing tones provide a thrill...vocal plenitude and splendour" -OPERA

VERDI – The King of Melody (1813-1901)
Starring Metropolitan Opera and La Scala stars Tito Gobbi and Mario del Monaco

VIEW DVD #2415 – List Price $19.98

This colorfully filmed drama about the life and loves of the great composer, Giuseppe Verdi, is played against a background of the great operas from the 19th Century. With more the 20 excerpts from Rigoletto, La Traviata, Othello, Aida, Il Trovatore, Nabucco and others, this film tells the story of the composer's struggle for success, love, and his musical triumph over the forces of political domination. A theatrical and critical success, this film has been perfectly dubbed into English and sung in Italian.

"Raffaello Matarazzo's direction is outstanding in the musical sequences, Tino Santoni's photography richly captures the Romantic period and Pierre Cressoy is an impassioned Verdi." –HOLLYWOOD REPORTER
