About This DVD

Dueling Guitars I: Paul Bollenback and John Hart

John Hart and Paul Bollenback bring their musical mastery and compositional skills to the first installment of Arkadia DVD's Dueling Guitars Series. A spectacular feast for the eyes and ears, this performance was recorded in Dolby Digital 5.1 and Stereo Audio and painstakingly edited to not only visually enhance the music, but to intrigue and enthrall viewers looking for an experience kind to the ears, as well as stimulating for the Jazz novice and aficionado alike.

As much a dance as a duel, this Series serves the Jazz community well, with two masters of the 6-string having an intimate guitar conversation. Witness their fingers bend the strings, their picks pluck and strum the notes, and their melodious (harmonious) minds create fascinating and original music. Whether it's Jazz standards, original compositions, or a Stevie Wonder tune, these guitar gurus play their hearts out, entertain the crowd, and warm the stage and your living room in Arkadia DVD's unforgettable new series of moving guitar duets.

The acclaimed John Hart has recorded for the Blue Note and Concord labels and played with pioneers such as Jimmy Smith, Jon Hendricks, Chris Potter, and Randy Brecker. A member of the famed Apollo Theater's house band, Harts' music has been featured in various TV shows such as Sex and The City.

Paul Bollenback has played on The Tonight Show, Good Morning America, and The Today Show, pleased audiences at New York's Blue Note and Moscow's Le Club, and worked with legends such as Stanley Turrentine and Herb Ellis. Paul's accolades include D.C. Musician of the Year, a grant from the NEA, and a SESAC award for a composition he wrote for Joey DeFrancesco.
