ELVIN JONES: JAZZ MACHINE

Touted by life magazine as "the world's greatest rhythmic drummer," and described by percussion icon Louie Bellson as "Mother Earth coming alive with syncopation," it would be impossible to overstate the importance of drummer Elvin Jones in the evolution of current and mainstream Jazz. This historic concert DVD features Elvin Jones playing with the thunderous power that reverberated throughout not only the Jazz community, but all of music, helping Jones move the drum kit from the back of the club to the forefront of music.

THE MOSCOW SAX QUINTET: THE JAZZNOST TOUR

The Moscow Sax Quintet is considered one of the finest Jazz groups in the world, and this DVD features the distinctive group on their premiere world tour, appropriately named the "The Jazznost Tour." Their magical sound perfectly captures the Jazz feeling, particularly on classics by Fat Waller and The Beatles. When they interpret Charlie Parker's improvised solos, playing them in 5-part harmony at a breakneck speed, you can hear the mastery of their skill in the music. Long famous for their virtuosity in the classical arena, this DVD proves that music is the universal language by showcasing the groundbreaking Russian group's mastery of the American art form.

I will state flat out: this Moscow Sax Quintet "Jazznost Tour" video is an amazing display of pure musicianship of the highest caliber... I couldn't pull myself away from the screen...it's non-stop and sweet, sweet jazz.... If you buy only one video this year you simply must make it this one. -David J Gibson, Saxophone Journal
