A CANNES FILM FESTIVAL SELECTION

"This two-part series is a true stroke of genius. His life and his work are captured in this incredible film." -New York Times

V.I.E.W. VIDEO is proud to present this enhanced DVD anthology of Pablo Picasso, considered by many to be the greatest painter of our time, and perhaps of all time. This unique film and the extensive bonus features reveal several unknown aspects of his work and personality and contains over 600 of his works, many never seen in public.

Edward Quinn, photographer and filmmaker, had the complete collaboration of Picasso, at work and at play. Using intimate and exclusive home movies and photos and many flashback sequences showing the mutations and evolution of his work in progress, we chronologically follow his works and the episodes of his life in parallel.

PICASSO: THE MAN AND HIS WORK

PART 1 (1881-1937) Starting in 1896, when he was only 15, we trace Picasso's artistic development, exploring his work as a youth, from the Blue period to the Pink period and his first steps into Cubism in 1906. Then we discover the Chrysteline period where he went from analytical to synthetic Cubism until entering his Neoclassical period in 1918. Part I culminates with the painting of his masterpiece "Guernica" in 1937.

PICASSO: THE MAN AND HIS WORK

PART 2 (1938-1973) Through the war years and life on the French Riviera, Picasso's work moves on to include ceramics, sculpture, pottery and graphics. The period from 1946 to 1973 is made up primarily of home movies, showing his relationships with his children and the women in his life, and emphasizing the enormous amount of work accomplished by Picasso during his last 20 years. We observe Picasso, 90 years old, working on a copper plate engraving as we follow the progress and changes made through 6 different stages.
